

Let The Laborers Show You The COMPETITIVE EDGE

For Environmental Remediation

“As an emerging contractor in this industry, resources are of paramount importance.

LIUNA provides those resources and gives us the flexibility to get the job done.”

CAROL GRAVES
CEO
Twice Over Clean, Inc.

“LIUNA’s Environmental Partnering Project Agreement (EPPA) is the competitive edge we need to compete in this industry. Their trained workers are second to none.”

MIKE ELIA
Senior Vice President
Sevenson Environmental Services, Inc.

“LIUNA and their Tri-Funds—Marketing, Health and Safety, and Training—give us the support and service needed to obtain, and more importantly deliver, work in the environmental clean-up industry.”

MIKE FITZGERALD
Senior Vice President
Foster-Wheeler
Environmental Corporation

“When you work with the Laborers’, you work with the best. That’s my personal guarantee. When you look at the future of the environmental industry, you’ll see LIUNA and our signatory partners leading the way.”

ARTHUR A. COIA
General President
Laborers’ International Union of North America

Today, the most successful environmental contractors look to the Laborers’ International Union of North America for the best-trained, safest, and most productive workers in the industry.

Through LIUNA’s Environmental Partnering Project Agreement (EPPA), contractors gain the competitive edge they need to compete in this dynamic industry.

Our one-stop-shop approach includes:

- Twenty-five regional environmental training facilities offering certified, state-of-the-art, 80-hour remediation education;
- Project specific agreements that enhance competitiveness;
- Liability minimization;
- Project research and tracking;
- Identification of minority and other subcontractors;
- Regulatory compliance assistance; and,
- Legislative and Public Affairs support.

If you are interested in the competitive edge of partnering with the Laborers, please call LIUNA’s Environmental Department at (202) 942-2270.
