

Let LIUNA show you... real innovation

"Apprenticeship and Training, Health and Safety, and Labor-Management Cooperation. I believe that LIUNA's Tri-Fund strategy is a model for our industry."

— Thomas T. Holsman, Executive Vice President, Associated General Contractors of California

"LIUNA truly understands the necessity for servicing the sale. From management's perspective, this positive approach must become the standard for our industry."

— Nicholas A. Fiore, Senior Vice President, National Constructors Association

"The Laborers, through their LECET fund, have the ability and willingness to form new alliances for mutual benefit. That's going to lead to more opportunities for their employers and their members."

— T. Peter Ruane, President & CEO, American Road & Transportation Builders Association

"The Laborers and our Tri-Funds realize that owners want quality work for a competitive price, contractors want increased market share and profitability, and LIUNA wants secure jobs and benefits. We see these as mutual objectives."

— Arthur A. Coia, General President, LIUNA

The Laborers' International Union of North America (LIUNA) is a new breed of building trades union. With three labor-management funds committed to remaining competitive in today's dynamic construction industry, we understand that now, more than ever, it is critical to combine strengths for mutual benefit.

Our joint objectives are increased market share and revenue for employers and enhanced job opportunities for working men and women. We know that effective management skills combined with labor efficiency and productivity, creates employer profitability and worker job security.

SOME LIKE TO TALK INNOVATION, AT LIUNA INNOVATION IS AT WORK!
